

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Sri Padmavati Mahila Visvavidyalayam was established in the year 1983 by Sri. N. T. Rama Rao, the then Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh for self development and empowerment of women through access to education, particularly higher education in varied disciplines. The university is offering 59 courses at the post graduate and under graduate level with a good component of research. The mission of the university is to provide quality education to women students with global standards laying a strong foundation on Indian values and tradition based in current advances in science and technology and societal demands with emphasis on commitment to social progress, peace, harmony and national integration. The University is accredited by NAAC with 'A' grade in 2016.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Education is the beehive of teaching, training, research and extension activities. It offers B.Ed., B.Ed.Spl.(H.I.), M.Ed., courses besides M. Phil and Ph. D Programmes. In the year 2012 it has received financial support from UGC through Special Assistance Programme (SAPDRS-I) for quality teaching and research.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

The aim of India's higher education system is attaining sustainable development and achieving higher growth rates which could be enabled through creation, transmission and dissemination of knowledge. Higher education at all levels in the country is witnessing a consistent growth pattern marked by the setting up of new institutions and the improvement of the existing ones. Demand for qualified teachers and faculty members over the next few years would be substantial and will become extremely critical for states to expand the current institutional capacities, not only of infrastructure but also of qualified and trained faculty members. There is a need for well-trained faculty members who will help improve programs to produce quality graduates.

Higher education institutions are starting to adapt and respond to professionals already in employment. The workshop is to be organized with a prime objective of equipping faculty members with required skills and knowledge to meet higher education needs.

OBJECTIVE OF THE WORKSHOP

- ✓ To refresh and enrich professionalism of teachers in higher education according to the present day needs
