

19BST03 - ENGINEERING MATHEMATICS – I

(Calculus and Differential Equations)

I-B.TECH --I SEMESTER

(Common to ALL Branches)

Outcomes:

On completion of the course

- The prospective engineers become familiar with the application of calculus and ordinary differential equations to engineering problems.
- The students acquire the abilities to use mathematics to analyze, formulate and solve problems in engineering application.

