Total No of Students	116
Report	Organized a Three day workshop on Embedded Systems, sponsored by APSSDC and Electronics Innovation Zone for the students of School of Engineering and Technology. The purpose of embedded systems is to control a specific function within a device. They are usually designed to only perform this function repeatedly, but more developed embedded systems can control entire operating systems. People often question the importance of embedded systems in daily life. These small computers are integrated into various systems for performing specific image and data processing tasks, and thus significantly impact the way we commute, spend our leisure time, run business, and perform various other daily activities A total number of 116 students from the school of Engineering and technology, SPMVV have actively participated in this 3 days workshop
